

Ronald S. Pobiel, M.D. is a neuroradiologist with Center for Diagnostic Imaging (CDI). Most recently, Dr. Pobiel was a neuroradiology fellow at the Barrow Neurological Institute at St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center in Phoenix. Prior to that position, he was co-director of pediatric imaging at the Radiology Associates of Birmingham, P.C.

Dr. Pobiel completed a fellowship in pediatric radiology at the Children's Hospital Medical Center in Cincinnati, and his residency in diagnostic radiology at University Hospital at the University of Cincinnati. In addition, he held an internship in internal medicine at the University of California in San Francisco after receiving his medical degree from the University's School of Medicine. Dr. Pobiel completed his undergraduate studies at the University of Minnesota College of Biological Sciences, receiving a B.S. degree in biochemistry with Summa Cum Laude honors.

During his career, he achieved certification in diagnostic radiology and added qualifications in pediatric radiology from the American Board of Radiology.

Dr. Pobiel has presented lectures and published research in his areas of expertise, including MR, ultrasound and pediatric radiology.

Dr. Pobiel's professional affiliations include the American College of Radiology, Radiological Society of North America, American Roentgen Ray Society, American Society of Neuroradiology and Society for Pediatric Radiology.

